

Biztalk® Server 2006
Custom Applications

JOHN LINGENFELDER

JLingenfelderJr@gmail.com (972) 468-1127
2220 Chadbourne Dr.
Plano, Texas 75023

Objective: Semi-Retired from Software Engineer career. Now licensed Mortgage Loan Originator for senior citizens offering as a retirement resource the FHA HECM mortgage

Work Authorization: U.S. Citizen

Education: B.A, Liberal Arts; University of St. Thomas; Houston, Texas
Graduate work in Accounting, Texas A&I University; Kingsville Texas

Certification: Licensed in the State of Texas as a Mortgage Loan Originator
Microsoft Certified Technical Specialist
Microsoft Certified Solution Developer

Background

Active Community Involvement

Founder of the community organization, Plano Solar Initiative (local alternative energy effort)
Board member – Native Plant Society of Texas, Blackland Prairie Chapter
League of Women Voters, Dallas Chapter
Trail Guide – Heard Natural Science Museum & Wildlife Sanctuary
Sierra Club, Dallas Chapter
General Member – Audubon Society, Grand Canyon River Guides, Nature Conservancy

Employment

Loan Officer (2013 to present)
Travelers National Mortgage, Dallas TX
Provide residential mortgage loan services to the general public. Focus on the specific needs of senior citizens

Sr. BizTalk Consultant (2003 to 2009)

Independent work as software engineer specializing in installation and maintenance for the Microsoft Biztalk solution. For firms nationwide – ABB, Inc. INX, Inc., Thornburg Mortgage, Safety-Kleen Systems

Sr. Applications Developer (1998 - 2003)

Mary Kay, Inc., Dallas TX

Assisted in spearheading major revisions to the Supply Chain process; the manufacturing systems; and warehouse management systems with BizTalk. Maintained Sales Order Entry application for 10,000 installed users accounting for over 25% of company revenues. Team personally recognized by Bill Gates in 1999 as the cutting-edge, Internet application for that time.

Applications Developer (1996 to 2003)

Business Jet Solution, Dallas, TX

Development of applications related to financial and accounting requirements. Responsible for the upgrade of corporate database, positively impacting customer relations and communication.